34,000,000
FEET TIMBER
AND LUMBER

FOREIGN PORTS SUPPLIED WITH A LARGE AMOUNT OF BUILDING
MATERIAL AND OTHER ITEMS FROM PENSACOLA DURING THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER.

Thirty-four million superficial feet of sawn timber and lumber, and 7,356 cubic feet of hewn timber constituted the wood building material shipped from Pensacola during the month of September. The lumber went to all corners of the known world, and was all handled at Pensacola during the month indicated.

Besides the yellow pine shipments, cargoes contained mahogany, oak, cedar and poplar lumber, but all that came from other places to be sent to foreign shores from this land.

The foreign exports represented a total valuation for the month of $1,270,152, of which lumber made up the larger portion. Other items were also sent out.

One of the features of the custom house books for the month is the show of numerous bunker supplies by calling steamers. Heretofore loaded vessels have been going up the Atlantic coast to Norfolk for coal. Pensacola is the coaling station now. During the month 11,065 tons of bunker coal were supplied here, this representing a valuation of $31,902. One other feature is the total absence of cotton exports, although it is promised the lack will be richly made up from now until the new year.

Naval stores also figured largely in the month's foreign export business.

BIG ESCAMBIA
OYSTERS WILL BE PLENTIFUL

ADVANCE ARRIVALS OF FLEET
INDICATE THAT LUSCIOUS PRODUCT OF LOCAL WATERS WILL BE LARGER AND BETTER THAN EVER ENJOYED HERE.

Larger, better, more delicious and more plentiful than ever before will be the Escambia oyster supply, such being the reports brought by several sloops which arrived yesterday and late Friday with fairly large assortments. Practically all consignments yesterday were taken over by one of three dealers, who will dispose of them without difficulty to local epicureans. Boats had not long been at the landing berths before dealers or their representatives were on hand and eagerly took over the entire supplies and would have taken as much more had such been available.

Oysters received here yesterday were large and toothsome. One dealer proudly showed some specimens several inches in length, and oyster lovers last night did not forget to hunt up those stands.

It was the general opinion by those who had given the matter much thought that the late stormy weather would not leave the oyster beds in good condition. Such opinion was dispelled yesterday when oyster fishers were spoken to regarding the matter. "The work is hard, and it will take a lot of work to get the best, but I can't say that the storm would have anything to do with it. In fact, I can't see any difference from any former year's work, except that we are going to bring plenty of oysters, and big ones, too, to Pensacola this season. I believe the storm did hurt the Biloxi beds, but they say over there that it didn't." was an off-hand opinion advanced by one man who will do a lot of oystering this season. Oysters sold yesterday on the half shell at twenty cents per dozen at counters. Wholesale prices were not fixed, and wholesale trade was not generally sought.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill. "But you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. NEWS ABOUT
THE MISSION

WILL BE IN POSITION IN A SHORT
TIME TO TAKE CARE DEFINITE-LY OF A NUMBER OF CASES.

Hello! Is this the Mission? Yes. There's a woman and child here from Apalachicola starving and no place to sleep; what shall I do with them?

Sent them down to the Mission and we will care for them, was the reply. In a short time, before Nov. 1st, the Mission Home will be opened, and then we shall be in position to take care definitely of a number of cases. It is intended to make a double use of the infirmary, the design of the building being such as one part can be entirely set apart from the other, so that one will be used as a children's home and the other as a woman's home.

For the purpose of establishing this important work, the churches have nearly all responded to the opportunity presented to them of helping to furnish the bed-rooms and dormitory, as well as to subscribe toward the expense, and the ladies of the city have entered into the work, heart and soul, and have, during the past week, held three meetings and have decided to hold a week's festival or rather, to be exact, five days from October 12th to 16th, inclusive. In the park and auditorium of the Mission House, corner of West Government and Reus streets, when some new and startling features will be produced, though kept secret at the present time.

There will be concerts every afternoon and evening, in which the very best talent the city affords have promised to take part. The program will be published in due time, and in the meanwhile the committee on music will be glad to hear from any one who will render some music, song, reading, recitation or any other pleasing and amusing entertainment. Please address Mrs. L. H. Herr, chairlady, the Mission.

Preparing for Event. Great efforts are being put forth to make this festival a success, as it is proposed to make it an annual affair, and there will possibly be from 60 to 100 ladies who will take part in several departments. The ladies ask the people of Pensacola to give their aid in carrying out the program, especially in the fact of wearing the checks all the day, showing sympathy for the work.

The Free Night School. The free night school at the Mission House will be opened October 18th, and those desirous of attending will please be on hand at 7:30. This school is for boys and girls, and others older who need an education, who are not attending any public or other school, but who feel that they want to know more and be better fitted to take up life's duties. In connection with the school will be an employment bureau for pending positions for those who are capable of filling them.

COTTON HAULED TO COMPRESS

CONSIGNMENT REACHED HERE
ON RIVER BOATS BUT TEAMS WERE EMPLOYED TO CONVEY
LOT TO COMPRESS FROM CITY
WATERFRONT.

Thirty-five bales of cotton, which had arrived Friday on river boats from points in Santa Rosa and Washington counties, were yesterday conveyed by big floats to the compress for storage. The floats carried five bales at each trip, and the sight of cotton in such quantity and being handled by such means excited much comment along the streets.

Local buyers have been reaching out for some of the Florida cotton, and the arrival of the lot Friday was the first of much which has been taken over. The compress is north of the city limits on the west side of the Brent road, and the haul is one of difficulty.

TWO PRETTY TREES
FLOWERING IN PLAZA

Two immense cotton rose trees in the plaza are loaded with buds and opened flowers, and much attention is given them by many who frequent that beautiful square. They are growing on the east and west sides respectively. Gardener Kennell is very proud of them, and the park commissioners feel likewise over the two beautiful plants.
